

Daily Reading Plan

Daily time in the Bible is essential for growth in our relationship with God. Carve out time each day to read and then reflect on the two questions, "What is God saying?" and "What will I do about it?" On the following pages we have provided three separate daily reading plans for you to choose from. Each plan progressively adds more reading but stays in sync with the same books and chapters as the others. This way, if you prefer a shorter reading plan and one of your CREW members who prefers to read more, you can still be reading from the same sections of scripture. Feel free to choose one and stick with it, or based on the day, jump to a different plan and then back again. It's completely up to you. These plans take you through the Old Testament once and the New Testament twice per year.
